

*Old Russell County Courthouse
91 Longview St
Seale, Alabama 36875*

The history of the Old Seale Courthouse is that Seale and Phenix City were dual Russell County seats from 1926 until 1934, when Phenix City became the sole county seat. The former courthouse in Seale has since served as a school gymnasium and a meeting place and today serves as a Rental Venue for Weddings, Reunions and other special events .
