

Whitewater Express

Chattahoochee.whitewaterexpress.com

The whitewater rafting section of the Chattahoochee River is a dam-released river with a typical release schedule of milder, lower flow in the morning and wilder, higher flow later in the day. The course consists of everything from relaxing lazy river floats to Massive Class V rapids.

Whether you're an adrenaline junkie, beginner or somewhere in between, Chattahoochee River rafting offers a unique experience that has something just for you!
